Introduction

Roy Kirkham & Co Limited was founded as a ceramic design studio by Roy Kirkham over thirty years ago in Stoke on Trent, England. It continues to be family owned and run, and the group is now internationally recognised as one of the foremost quality brands for fine bone china tableware and giftware products. The family ensure a personal high quality service, and guarantee that all fine bone china products bearing the Roy Kirkham name are manufactured to the highest international standards, using unleaded glaze and a blend of fine china clays and feldspars. Only with this dedication can the bright, classical and translucent finish of traditional fine bone china be wholly achieved.

The Roy Kirkham brand continues to be associated with beautifully designed quintessentially English patterns with many innovative and stylish products. All designs are protected under international law as being specifically created for and exclusively used by the Roy Kirkham Group of companies.

The Roy Kirkham Group can now design and supply bespoke branded products for the corporate gift, promotional merchandise or hospitality sectors.
